Is Ka$h Paying FBI Agents To Crime For Him? Or Just Bribing Guys To Be His Friends? Or?

Like clockwork there it came, an hour later if that.

It was a letter from Democratic Rep. Jamie Raskin, the ranking member of the House Judiciary Committee, to FBI Director Eyeballs McTryhard responding to as yet publicly cryptic reports that Kash has been using his position — and US taxpayer dollars — to dole out $8,000 payments to FBI agents who like to lick fascist ass as much as Kash does, for God knows what kind of improper purposes and/or crimes.

The Honorable Kashyap Patel
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
935 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20535

Dear Director Patel:

We have been receiving troubling reports that you may be using part of the budget of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) as a personal slush fund to make tens or hundreds of thousands of dollars in unlawful “bonus” payments to loyalist MAGA henchmen who have engaged in misconduct. We write to find out precisely how much slush fund largess you have put on the American taxpayer’s tab.

According to information received by the House Committee on the Judiciary, your office has issued more than $1 million in awards to special agents serving on your “Director’s Advisory Team”¹—a curated group of agents who are willing to carry out your unlawful partisan and personal orders—and special agents on your security detail, circumventing the mandatory maximum pay caps established by statute.² By issuing these side payments, your office may be knowingly breaking federal law.³ In some cases, nearly $8,000 payments have been made to multiple individuals every two-week pay period despite many of the beneficiaries of your selective generosity already maxing out on a federal employee’s salary.⁴ While it is unclear at this time exactly how much each of the agents has received, we can confirm that numerous loyalist employees have received at least five such payments in consecutive pay periods, amounting to nearly $40,000 per agent. We can also confirm you have depleted the FBI reserve accounts for bonus payments at such a frenzied rate that some of the payments have bounced back from exhausted accounts.⁵ Why are these agents receiving extra pay simply for doing their jobs? Are they, in fact, collecting bonus compensation for engaging in actions outside of their duties and outside of the law?

We know the agents on your Director's Advisory Team—perhaps better known as “the Payback Squad” given their reported willingness to pursue political targets and overlook pesky legal obstacles like probable cause—have received a significant amount of these funds.⁶ These “Payback Squad” lieutenants have repaid your corrupt generosity by polygraphing FBI employees, including members of your security detail and information technology personnel suspected of not fully participating in the cover-up of your excessive drinking habits and erratic behavior, such as the famous episode in which you locked yourself out of your computer, panicked, and told staff and allies that you had been fired.⁷ For their part, the agents on your security detail have also witnessed your indiscretions at the Poodle Room, Ned's, Rao's, Lower Broadway, the Strip, the Milano Cortina Olympics, and beyond—when joining you on date nights and bro trips alike.⁸ It is not clear whether these bonus payments have simply been a corrupt attempt to slide cash to friends or whether they are also meant to ensure the silence of the agents who witness your inebriation and accompanying professional negligence and misconduct.⁹ Either way, these freelance awards appear to constitute gross mismanagement of public funds and an abuse of authority by the Director's Office.

To be sure, federal workers deserve a raise, and I know that pay caps present an arbitrary obstacle to proper compensation for excellent and hard-working senior officials.¹⁰ The FBI Director also possesses authority to issue bonuses for outstanding performance. But rather than giving raises or bonuses to the FBI's most dedicated and high-performing career special agents whom America counts on, you have fired those people for plainly political reasons. At Donald Trump's behest, you unlawfully terminated former Acting Director Brian Driscoll, an FBI Medal of Valor Recipient who, as part of his storied career, raided terrorist compounds in the Middle East alongside Delta Force.¹¹ You fired Steven Jensen, who as head of the FBI's Domestic Terrorism Operations Section, led the law enforcement response to the attack on our democracy on January 6, 2021.¹² You fired Walter Giardina, a decorated Marine combat veteran and 20-year FBI Special Agent, just weeks after his wife died from cancer, in retaliation for his work on the Robert Mueller investigation and the contempt of Congress case against Peter Navarro.¹³ You fired Steven Palmer, a 27-year FBI veteran who headed the Critical Incident Response Group and oversaw the FBI fleet, the day after news broke that you had taken the FBI's private jet to see your girlfriend perform at a Penn State event.¹⁴ You fired Michelle Ball, Jamie Garman, and Blaire Toleman, three FBI agents each with between eight and 14 years of unblemished service, in a "retribution campaign" targeting them for their work on the investigation of President Trump's unlawful retention of classified documents.¹⁵ Just days before the United States launched a major military operation against Iran, you fired a dozen agents and staff members from a counterintelligence unit specifically tasked with monitoring Iranian threats because they had also been involved in the Trump classified documents investigation.¹⁶

Your actions in firing agents like Mr. Driscoll, Mr. Jensen, Mr. Giardina, and Mr. Palmer, along with dozens of other consummate FBI professionals, are a scandal. That scandal is now deepened by your apparent practice of systematically rewarding lackeys and sycophants with illegal cash bonuses beyond federal salary caps. Federal money appropriated for the FBI's budget does not constitute a slush fund for you to reward agents to keep your abuses of power carefully hidden from view. To fully inform our ongoing investigation of waste, fraud, and civil and criminal abuse, please provide the following to the Committee no later than 5:00 p.m. on June 29, 2026:

1. A full account of all bonuses, awards, or other payments made in addition to any FBI agent or employee's salary, including but not limited to the amount awarded, who it was awarded to, and who authorized the award;
2. All documentation, including internal communications, regarding such bonuses, awards, or other payments;
3. A full list of individuals who serve or have served on your Director Advisory Team and their specific compensation, shown by pay period, over the last five years; and

"We have been receiving troubling reports that you may be using part of the budget of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) as a personal slush fund to make tens or hundreds of thousands of dollars in unlawful 'bonus' payments to loyalist MAGA henchmen who have engaged in misconduct," Raskin wrote, cutting to the chase.

He says his committee has evidence Dipshit has blown $1 million in taxpayer money on people in his "Director's Advisory Team," AKA "a curated group of agents who are willing to carry out your unlawful partisan and personal orders." Also his security goons. More summary and quotes from MS NOW:

"By issuing these side payments, your office may be knowingly breaking federal law," the letter says. "In some cases, nearly $8,000 payments have been made to multiple individuals every two-week pay period despite many of the beneficiaries of your selective generosity already maxing out on a federal employee's salary."

The letter says it is unclear exactly how much each of the agents has received, but "we can confirm that numerous loyalist employees have received at least five such payments in consecutive pay periods, amounting to nearly $40,000 per agent. We can also confirm you have depleted this reserve at such a frenzied rate that some of the payments have bounced back from exhausted accounts."

"It is not clear whether these bonus payments have simply been a corrupt attempt to slide cash to friends or whether they are also meant to ensure the silence of the agents who witness your inebriation and accompanying professional negligence and misconduct," Raskin's letter says.

Covering up for Officer Drunk-leggedly? Actually committing crimes on behalf of Kash?

Planting bullets that say TRANZGENDURRRR DID IT at crime scenes?

LOL we are just asking, and mocking.

"Why are these agents receiving extra pay simply for doing their jobs?" asked Raskin. "Are they, in fact, collecting bonus compensation for engaging in actions outside of their duties and outside of the law?"

Questions that obviously deserve answers, and when Democrats take Congress this fall, people like Raskin will start to make their lives miserable and get some.

On the second page, Raskin starts to twist the proverbial knife by reciting out loud some of the humiliating stories America needs to hear more about Kash Patel:

We know the agents on your Director's Advisory Team — perhaps better known as "the Payback Squad" given their reported willingness to pursue political targets and overlook pesky legal obstacles like probable cause — have received a significant amount of these funds. These "Payback Squad" lieutenants have repaid your corrupt generosity by polygraphing FBI employees, including members of your security detail and information technology personnel suspected of not fully participating in the cover-up of your excessive drinking habits and erratic behavior, such as the famous episode in which you locked yourself out of your computer, panicked, and told staff and allies that you had been fired. For their part, the agents on your security detail have also witnessed your indiscretions at the Poodle Room, Ned's, Rao's, Lower Broadway, the Strip, the Milano Cortina Olympics, and beyond — when joining you on date nights and bro trips alike. It is not clear whether these bonus payments have simply been a corrupt attempt to slide cash to friends or whether they are also meant to ensure the silence of the agents who witness your inebriation and accompanying professional negligence and misconduct. Either way, these freelance awards appear to constitute gross mismanagement of public funds and an abuse of authority by the Director's Office.

Jamie Raskin knows who saw what Kash did at The Poodle Room.

Christ, how mortified his parents must be, the level of shame he's visited upon his family and all his ancestors.

Oh well, not our fuckin' problem, except inasmuch as his parents' failed excuse for offspring is America's problem.

This would be such an enormous scandal if the country's scandal card wasn't all full-up at the moment. But don't worry, Democrats will keep the receipts so they can bring this criminal regime to a screeching halt with oversight after the midterms, and then patriotic prosecutors and judges can send this pathetic, friendless asshole and many others to prison once this is all over.

Mazel tov!
