
TV tonight: has Richard E Grant blown it in The Celebrity Traitors?

Published by

Hollie Richardson, Phil Harrison, Jack Seale

Estimated reading time

1 min

Added on

2026-10-08

Address

<https://www.theguardian.com/tv-and-radio/2026/oct/08/tv-tonight-has-richard-e-grant-blown-it-in-the-celebrity-traitors>

TV tonight: has Richard E Grant blown it in The Celebrity Traitors?

The Celebrity Traitors

8pm, BBC One

We've had our first round table – and incredibly frustrating cliffhanger ending – so now it's time to find out which celebrity is the first to be banished. After confessing he is a traitor minutes after being chosen, surely it will be Richard E Grant? But that's what's so delicious about this game: you just never know what twist will come next. Continues on Friday with another murder. Hollie Richardson

Taskmaster

9.05pm, Channel 4

Richard Ayoade's stagey (but convincing) disdain for the show he's agreed to appear on reaches new heights as he threatens to destroy the whole set. Things aren't much better for the other contenders, with Chloe Petts suffering a day of setbacks. No wonder Alex just wants to lie quietly in a box for a while. Phil Harrison

All Creatures Great and Small

9.05pm, Channel 5

While a stray pekingese needs a new home and Siegfried (Samuel West) becomes indignant with a car mechanic, a trip out to help a stuck calf looks initially like standard hand-up-a-cow fare. But it's a whopper! Is it time for the Dales' inaugural bovine caesarean? Jack Seale

Not Going Out

9.30pm, BBC One

Nigel Planer cameos in Lee Mack's easy-going, long-running family sitcom this week. After seeing a play together, Lee (Mack) and Lucy (Sally Bretton) bump into Nigel in a fancy restaurant. Cue a night of awkward introductions, farcical mix-ups and a few laughs. HR

Break Clause

10.05pm, Channel 4

More from the housing crisis comedy, where a couple split up on their first night in London but are stuck in a six-month contract. After Lil's (Lara Ricote) excruciating first rebound date, she and Ben (Samuel Bottomley) head back to Leeds for their mates' baby's christening – the perfect opportunity for Lil to find the woman with whom Ben cheated on her. HR

The Paper11pm, Sky One

The Office spin-off prints out an efficient double bill to conclude season two. Editor Ned (Domhnall Gleeson) is still trying to land his haymaker investigative piece, but should he and reporter Mare (Chelsea Frei) prioritise love over journalism? The finale has a nice amount of weakness for open-hearted emotion. JS

Produced by wallabag with tcpdf

Please open an issue if you have trouble with the display of this E-Book on your device.