
TV tonight: real stories of abandoned babies and reunited families

Published by

Phil Harrison, Ali Catterall, Hannah J Davies, Graeme Virtue

Estimated reading time

1 min

Added on

2025-06-18

Address

<https://www.theguardian.com/tv-and-radio/2025/jun/18/tv-tonight-real-stories-of-abandoned-babies-and-reunited-families>

TV tonight: real stories of abandoned babies and reunited families

Long Lost Family: Born Without Trace

9pm, ITV1

A new run of this affecting, long-running series which uses a mixture of fancy DNA technology and old-school sleuthing to reunite people with their biological families. We begin with Simon who, in 1966, was left in the outside toilet block of a mother-and-baby home in south Wales. We also meet Lisa, who almost 60 years ago, was left in another baby's pram. Can Davina McCall, Nicky Campbell and their team help the pair find some answers about their origins? Expect tearful revelations. Phil Harrison

Amol Rajan Interviews

7pm, BBC Two

By any measure, Martina Navratilova has had a remarkable life. She was a tennis prodigy, winning a national title in Czechoslovakia at the age of 15. Her subsequent life has included gaining US citizenship, political activism and sadly, several bouts of cancer. There will be plenty to talk about then. PH

The Repair Shop on the Road

8pm, BBC One

The roving Repair Shop 4x4 reaches Scotland. Highlights include daredevil action in Glasgow as Lucia ascends the 68-metre (225ft) spire of the city's cathedral to see first-hand how it is holding up to weather damage. Dom remains on terra firma but mucks in with flame cleaning and regilding the spire's golden cockerel weathervane. GV

Race Across the World

9pm, BBC One

Have Elizabeth and Letitia maintained their intimacy? Have Fin and Sioned got itchy feet since returning to rural Wales? And has the race taught Caroline new powers of self-assertiveness? Six months after finishing their jaunt, the teams reunite to ponder their experiences. PH

Glow Up: Britain's Next Make-Up Star

9pm, BBC Three

It's makeup brushes at dawn for Cherise, Jake and Jade, but who will get a "ding dong, darling!" from judge Val Garland, and who is weeping before they've even finished their final look? Luckily, the reality contest remains largely feelgood TV, even during this tense finale. Hannah J Davies

Unspun World With John Simpson11pm, BBC Two

An unvarnished take on the week's biggest stories (recorded so close to transmission that no details are available in advance). Which rather prompts the question: can one take a proper overview before the dust has settled? BBC world affairs editor John Simpson is having a go anyway. AC

Produced by wallabag with tcpdf

Please open an issue if you have trouble with the display of this E-Book on your device.