MAGA Hates Markwayne Mullin Now, Wants Trump's French Bulldog Bill Pulte At DHS Instead

We knew Markwayne the Plumber Mullin would fail as DHS secretary, because anybody who's ever watched that guy for three minutes knows he's going to fail. But we weren't sure how.

After the age of Nazi Barbie Kristi Noem and her \(allegedly!\) boner buddy Corey Lewandowski making complete asses of themselves and a mockery of an entire government agency, it seemed like Mullin's idea was to get in there and try to keep his head down, make the ICE Nazis a little bit quieter and more effective, maybe try to learn to hurt human beings without constantly having to brag about it like that Little Man Syndrome weenus Greg Bovino. Mullin said as much. He didn't want ICE making headlines.

And based on one headline we saw this morning, it sounds like that could be having some success. CBS News reports that ICE detentions set a monthly record in July, 46,000, at least compared to the rest of the months of the Trump regime. That's after a June that itself set a record, 43,000.

Of course, ICE is out there making headlines again, for committing murder in plain sight.

So maybe the plan isn't going exactly as intended for Markwayne Pigfuck the Goober Plumber, for whom all jobs are above his paygrade.

And now Politico Playbook is reporting that all of MAGA hates him anyway, because he's not a performative enough Nazi for them. Remember that thing about not having to brag about it because of all your Little Man Syndrome? Uhhhh, if nobody is bragging about things because of their Little Man Syndrome, does MAGA even exist?

The headline of Playbook this morning is "MAGA vs. Mullin," and oh boy, they really do hate him. They think he's a wuss and a cuck and a beta and a soy boy.

The summary:

Rageboiled over on X Saturday after Mullin spoke about immigration reform at the National Governors Association Summer Meeting in Oklahoma City. Drawing a distinction between immigrants pursuing legal status and those who aren't, he called for changes to employment visa programs to address labor shortages.

A couple hours later, he posted on X: "NO amnesty for illegal aliens. Ever."

Mullin sustained abarrage of attacks from the likes of Laura Loomer, Robby Starbuck, Nick Sortor, Tomi Lahren, and former Border Patrol chief Gregory Bovino.

Popular MAGA podcaster Jake Posobiec told Playbook that after Mullin's comments over the weekend "there is a growing wave among MAGA to find a DHS secretary who puts deportations first."

The new MAGA conventional wisdom: Mullin is weak on immigration. That has some Trump allies pushing for a less-diplomatic choice for the job: Bill Pulte.

“MAGA wants President Trump to detail ‘Pitbull’ Pulte to DHS,” Steve Bannon, part of a growing chorus of the MAGA faithful blasting Mullin, told Playbook. “Mullin is the wrong guy at the wrong time for the wrong job — a time when we need focus on ‘mass deportations,’ we get an amnesty advocate.”

Playbook notes all the things we noted, that ICE numbers are actually up. But it also, in a gentler way than we did, notes that MAGA is full of men who couldn't speak softly and carry a big stick if they paid doctors good money for soft voices and big sticks. And it's even become the opinion inside the White House:

“It takes a lot to unite this administration around a cohesive point of view,” a senior administration official told Playbook. “Mullin deserves credit where credit is due. Everyone agrees he sucks donkey butt.”

Well OK. Truly, it is amazing that the Trump regime can't find anyone who isn't an ass-sucking clown to do anything well.

That blockheaded ball-washer Bill Pulte would fail too, by the way, because he's dreadfully fucking stupid, just an ass-kisser, not a guy who has any inner strength as a man outside of which more powerful MAGA man he's being an obedient little French bulldog for. (Pit bull? Hahahahahahaha, no.)
